Dear Sir / Madam, I am writing to you in support of the Draft Local Development Plan, specifically in reference to keeping Site reference LC14 "Lissie Industrial Estate" as an area of employment. Our company, [REDACTED] has owned business units at the bottom of Flush Park since it was developed as an IDB site in the 70's. We traded out of Flush Park for many years as Savoury Foods, as agents for Smiths and Tudor potato crisps. We have since sold that trading business to Valeo Foods who now rent our 40,000 sq ft warehouse and offices in Flush Park. We have 4 other tenants in what is now a busy little industrial park. We would be very keen that the area, including the old Bibbys Mill and the field behind (both form a boundary with our Flush Park site) should remain in the category of employment / industrial as your current draft plan indicates. I hope our opinion is of value to you. Best regards [REDACTED]
